WORKSHOPS AND COURSES

Inayatullah has conducted planning–visioning workshops in more than a dozen countries. In the 1990s, for the World Futures Studies Federation, he taught international courses on a range of issues including education, ecology, development, and policymaking, in Andorra, Fiji, Thailand, and Malaysia. In the past few years he has given keynote, plenary, or public lectures on a range of subjects in Austria, Luxembourg, South Korea, Indonesia, Singapore, the Philippines, Thailand, New Zealand, Canada, the United States, Pakistan, Malaysia, Holland, Australia, Yugoslavia, Greece, India, Germany, Switzerland, Taiwan, and Japan.

In Australia he has run Futures–Oriented Policy courses for Maroochydore Shire Council, Brisbane City Council, Gold Coast City Council, Logan City Council, Queensland Tourism, Racing and Fair Trade, the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Farming (Division of Animal Welfare and Product Integrity), Cairns and Mackay Airports, and the Australian Centre of Excellence for Risk Analysis.

Internationally he has run foresight courses for the Organization of the Islamic Conference Standing Committee on Science and Technology (Islamabad), IBN International in Kuala Lumpur (on strategic foresight for universities, the public sector and the private sector), APEC Technology Foresight Division (Bangkok), Raffles Academy, Singapore and the Razak School of Government, Putrajaya, Malaysia. Currently he is running foresight courses for the International Pearl Fishers Action Learning Group (international policing) and for the Australian Government, Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry.

With Robert Burke, he co-teaches a bi-annual foresight course (Futures thinking and strategy development) for CEOs and senior managers at Mt Eliza Executive Education, Melbourne Business School, Melbourne.
